MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Jay Shree Swaminarayan

It gives me great pleasure to present to you 'Kirtan Amrut Sagar'. This nitya niyam and kirtan book will be an important source of religious material for youth, bursting with kirtans, and beautiful pictures of Swaminarayan Bhagvan.

Today, as we celebrate our mandir's 21st patotsav and the 6th anniversary of our beloved Ghanshyam Maharaj, I remember the kind words said by Param Pujya Acharya 1008 Shree Tejendraprasadji Maharaj at the murti pratistha of Shree Ghanshyam Maharaj.

"Congratulations to the satsangis of East London for their tremendous effort in rebuilding this mandir. I pray to Shree Ghanshyam Maharaj to shower His grace upon you all".

I am very thankful to all the satsangis who helped compile this book. But in particular, this admiration belongs to Jayna Raghwani, for converting the Gujarati words into English and creating a collection of amazing kirtans, and also to Dinesh Rajani for the wonderful graphic design and utmost patience.

This kirtan book will allow satsangis in the western world to progress in satsang, by giving them the opportunity to sing, learn and understand the language of kirtans. For this reason, we have transcribed into English some of the traditional kirtans composed by Nand Santo of the Swaminarayan Sampraday, in hope that everyone can actively engage in singing kirtans, whilst thinking of Swaminarayan Bhagvan.

May Swaminarayan Bhagvan shower His blessings upon all satsangis.

Kirtan Bhakti

Rushi Muni's divided time into four eras: Satyug, Tretãyug, Dvãpuryug, and Kaliyug.

- In Satyug, the minds and hearts of people were so pure and innocent, that moksh could be attained by simply doing dhyãn.
- In Tretãyug, due to a slight decrease in the purity of the hearts of people, moksh could no longer be attained by doing dhyãn. People now had to perform physical actions, like mãlã and pujã.
- In Dwãpuryug, the pureness reduced furthermore. There was now a need for mandirs and murtis, so people could find Bhagvãn.
- Now we live in Kaliyug. Doing dhyãn and mãlã, or going to mandir and doing darshan of murtis, is not enough to take us to Akshardhãm. We need to sing kirtans and dhun to focus on Bhagvãn.

"In Kaliyug, singing kirtans and dhun will give us the same punya as performing yagna, tap, and vrat"

Shreemad Bhãgvat

SKS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE
EAST LONDON

"All my satsangis should go to mandir every evening, and loudly sing dhun and kirtans about the greatness of Bhagvãn"

Swãminãrayan Bhagvãn (Shikshapatri – Shlok 63)

"If we play instruments and sing kirtans, but we forget Bhagvãn, it is like not singing at all. There are many people in the world who sing, and play instruments, but they forget Bhagvãn. They do not have peace of mind. This is why we should sing Bhagvãn's kirtans, sing dhun, and play instruments while keeping Bhagvãn in our mind."

Swãminãrayan Bhagvãn (Vachanamrut - Gadhadã Pratham 22)

Jay Shree Swaminarayan

We are delighted that the mandir has produced "Kirtan Amrut Sagar" in English, in celebration of the 21st patotsav. We are pleased that you have selected kirtans written by our beloved Nand Santos. Shreeji Maharaj Himself has said that kirtan bhakti is the best means of pleasing Bhagwan in the Kaliyug. This nitya niyam and kirtan book will encourage satsangis in the western society to engage in kirtan bhakti. We are confident that the readers of this kirtan book will find it extremely valuable, and help them on their path towards Akshardham.

Some people talk about finding Bhagvãn - as if He can get lost!

Virah (kirtans sung when Mahãrãj went to Akshardhãm)

On Jeth Sud 10, VS 1886, Swãminãrãyan Bhagvãn gathered all His satsangis in Gadhadã. He was upset. In a calm and peaceful tone, he said:

"There is something I wish to tell you. My purpsose here on Earth has been fulfilled. Mandirs have been built, with murtis of Dev's for you to worship. I have divided the land into two parts and chosen my two nephews as Acharyas. Dharmas have been stated for everyone in the Shikshapatri, which I have written. Religion has been established once again. And finally, I have shown the path of moksh and Akshardhãm.

Other avtars have left their mortal bodies and returned to Akshardhãm. I too must leave. Do not worry about me, as I promise that I will see you all again. Always work together, and be happy in satsang."

He then closed His eyes…

TRANSLATIONS

Ãrti

Jay Sadguru Swãmi, Prabhu Jay Sadguru Swãmi,
Sahajãnand Dayãlu, Balavant Bahu-Nãmi
Praise to my Bhagvãn! Sahajãnand Swãmi is very compassionate, powerful, and has thousands of names.

Charan Saroj Tamãrã Vandu Kar Jodi,
Charane Sheesh Dhariyã Thi, Dukh Nãkhiyã Todi
Everyday, I bow down to your feet with my hands together.
After bowing my head to the feet of Bhagvãn, all my sorrows are gone.

Nãrãyan Nar-Bhrãtã Dvij-Kul Tanu Dhãri,
Pãmar Patit Uddhãriyã Aganit Nar-Nãri
Bhagvãn took birth as Nãrãyan, the brother of Nar, in a Brãhman family. He saved the sinful souls of countless men and women.

Nitya Nitya Nautam Leelã Kartã Avinãshi,
Adsath Tirth Charane, Koti Gayã Kãshi
Bhagvãn who is eternal, performs new leelãs everyday.
At His feet, are all the sixty-eight pilgrimage places, which are like millions of Kãshi pilgrimages combined together.

Purushottam Pragat-Nu, Je Darshan Kar-She,
Kãl Karam-Thi Chhuti, Kutumb Sahit Tar-She
Whoever has a glimpse of this Bhagvãn who is present amongst us today, will conquer over time and karma, and will be freed from birth and death along with His whole family.

Ã Avasar Karunã-Nidhi, Karunã Bahu Kidhi,
Muktãnand Kahe Mukti, Sugam Kari Siddhi
This time, Bhagvãn has been so kind.
And due to that, Muktãnand Swãmi says that attaining freedom from life and death has become very easy.

Sahajānand Mahārāj Ke, Sab Satsangi Sujān
Tāku Hoi Dradh Vartano, Shikshapatri Pramān
One who is initiated into the Swāminārāyan sampradāy, should strictly follow the principles written in the Shikshapatri.

So Patri-Me Ati Bade, Niyam Ekādash Joi
Tāki Vikti Kahat Hu, Suniyo Sab Chit Proi
In that Shikshapatri, there are great eleven regulations. I am now going to describe them, so please listen to them with attention.

Hinsã Na Kar-Ni Jantuki, Partriya Sang-Ko Tyãg
Do not kill any living beings, do not have physical relations with other women

Mãns Na Khãvat Madh-Ku, Pivat Nahi Bad-Bhagya
Do no eat meat, do not drink intoxicants

Vidhvã-Kun Sparshat Nahi, Karat Na Ãtmaghãt
Do not touch a widow, do not commit suicide

Chori Na Karni Kãhuki, Kalank Na Koi-Ku Lagãt
Do not steal others property, do not make false accusations about others

Nindat Nahi Koi Deva-Ku, Bin-Khapto Nahi Khãt
Do not criticise any demi-gods, do not take food from a person whom one is not supposed to accept food

Vimukh Jeev-Ke Vadan-Se, Kathã Suni Nahi Jãt
Do not listen to any religious philosophy or talks from a non-religious person

Ehi Dharma-Ke Niyam-Me, Varato Sab Haridãs
Bhajo Shree Sahajãnand Pad, Chhodi Aur Sab Ãsh
Discarding all desires, a servant of Shree Hari should follow all these principles, and give up everything to perform sevã for Sahajãnand Swãmi.

Rahi Ekãdash Niyam-Me, Karo Shree Hari-Pad Preet
Premãnand Kahe Dhãm-Me, Jão Nihshank Jag-Jeet
Please stay in these eleven principles, and form attraction for the feet of Bhagvãn. Premãnand Swãmi guarantees that one who does the above will definitely go to Akshardhãm.

PAD 1

First of all, I bow my head to the feet of Mahãrãj (1)
I sing the different leelãs of Nãrãyan Bhagvãn (2)
Great yogis go to the jungle for Him (3)
They worship and concentrate their mind on Him (4)

They practice yoga, and think of His leelãs (5)
And they recall them with love (6)
Hearing the unpredictable nature of Purushottam Nãrãyan (7)
Relieves us from the fear of Yamraj (8)

I sing with love, remembering the leelãs of Mahãrãj (9)
O Bhagvãn, please make my mind sacred (10)
Whenever Mahãrãj sits (11)
He takes a mãlã made of Tulsi and turns it in His hand (12)

Lotus eyed, good looking (Mahãrãj) (13)
Takes a mãlã from a satsangi just for fun (14)
And He turns two beads at a time (15)
And sometimes plays with it and breaks it (16)

Talking, making fun, and laughing (17)
Gathering the mãlã, He rubs it in His palms (18)
Sometimes Mahãrãj would call someone using the flicker of His eyes (19)
Premãnand says that Mahãrãj (Bahu-Nãmi) meditates (20)

PAD 2

O dear friend, listen to the leelãs of Mahãrãj (Nat-Nãgar) (1)
That give us happiness when we hear them (2)
Sometimes He meditates with His eyes open (3)
Sometimes He meditates outside with His eyes closed (4)

Sometimes He wakes up startled from meditation (5)
Seeing Mahãrãj do this, removes the misery of birth and death (6)
When a sabhã is seated before Him (7)
The santo and hari-bhaktos gaze at Him (8)

He meditates while he is seated in the sabhã (9)
Santo and hari-bhaktos cannot stop looking at Him (10)
Santo sing kirtans and play musical instruments (11)
Seeing them do this, Mahãrãj becomes absorbed in them (12)

Mahãrãj clicks His fingers and sings with them (13)
Santo and hari-bhaktos watch Him with delight (14)
Sometimes the santo sing and clap (15)
And Mahãrãj (Van-Mãli) sings and claps with them (16)

When santo sing before Him (17)
Kathã is also being read (18)
Mahãrãj (Bahu-Nãmi) says stories and does kathã (19)
The Swãmi (Mahãrãj) of Premãnand moves closer and closer (20)

PAD 3

Mahãrãj (Mangal-Kãri) performs human-like actions (1)
He sits in the sabhã with bhaktos (2)
When someone looks at Him, their weaknesses disappear (3)
He does kathã on Dharma, Bhakti, Gnãn, and Vairãgya (4)

All His kathãs relate to these topics (5)
Mahãrãj does kathãs for His own people (6)
Yog, Sãnkhya, Panch-Rãtra Vedãnt (7)
He gives detailed kathãs on these shãstras (8)

Sometimes hari-bhaktos would come from other places (9)
On festivals, they would bring their pujãs so they can stay (10)
Avinãshi (Mahãrãj) sees servants from other places as His own (11)
He accepts their offer of pujã (12)

He accepts the followers as His own (13)
He stops their pulse when he makes them meditate (14)
He wakes the people from meditation (15)
And brings the senses back into their body (16)

Mahãrãj sits with a sabhã of Santo (17)
If he wants to call a hari-bhakto to Him (18)
He uses His finger or eyes to give them a sign (19)
Premãnand says sometimes he calls them loudly (20)

SKS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE EAST LONDON

PAD 4

Mahãrãj's stories are very delightful (1)
Listening to them gives happiness (2)
Sometimes He talks with santo (3)
He rubs bunches of roses between His two hands (4)

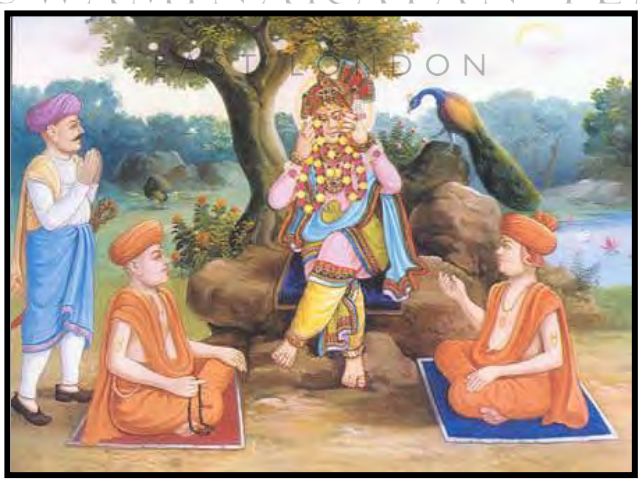
He keeps cool lemons and garlands of roses (5)
And presses them over His eyes (6)
Sometimes when He is in a pleasant mood (7)
He talks, even though there is a kathã going on (8)

Sometimes He thinks whilst listening to kirtans (9)
And when someone asks about having food (for lunch or dinner) (10)
Or wants to give a garland, or wants to offer pujã (11)
He gets very irritated with them (12)

Sometimes when listening to kathã, he says "Hare Hare" (13)
Whilst thinking about the kathã, he rocks back and forth in fascination (14)
He becomes absorbed in the kathã and sometimes other activities (15)
Sometimes He calls out "Hare Hare" whilst dining (16)

When he remembers the kathã (17)
He looks towards His hari-bhakto and smiles (18)
Everyday, He showers blessings on everyone (19)
Seeing these leelãs, Premãnand sings the stories (20)

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE EAST LONDON



PAD 5

Listen dear friend, about the greatness of God (1)
He acts ordinarily, incarnating Himself as a man (2)
Mahãrãj becomes just like a human (3)
To give happiness to His dear hari-bhaktos (4)

Sometimes Ghanshyam sits on a cushion (5)
Sometimes He sits on a decorated cotton mattress (6)
Sometimes He sits on a thin blanket, and sometimes a bed sheet (7)
He spreads the sheet and sits on it (8)

Sometimes Mahãrãj piles the cushions up to His head (9)
He sits on there with His legs crossed (10)
Sometimes He acts as if He's tired (11)
He ties His knees with a cloth (worn around His neck) (12)

Sometimes when He becomes very pleased (13)
He embraces Santo and Hari-bhaktos, taking them into His hands (14)
Sometimes He puts His hands on their heads (15)
And gives them His footprints on their chest (16)

Sometimes Mahãrãj gives bunches of flowers (17)
Sometimes Mahãrãj gives clothes that He has worn (18)
Sometimes He gives prasãd (19)
Premãnand says that Mahãrãj looks over His hari-bhaktos (20)

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN MANDIR

PAD 6

Mahãrãj performs leelãs like this (1)
And santo like Sukhji sing about them everyday (2)
Sometimes He presses His tongue to His teeth (3)
He does this by moving His tongue left to right (4)

Whenever He wants to sneeze he gets His handkerchief (5)
He sneezes with the handkerchief over His mouth (6)
Ghanshyam laughs alot when He is in a playful mood (7)
And He keeps the handkerchief over His mouth (8)

Sometimes when there is a kathã (9)
He has a habit of twisting the ends of the handkerchief (10)
His nature is very forgiving (11)
And he is the remover of grief (12)

He cannot bear to see sadness in anyone (13)
He removes their suffering (14)
By giving food and clothes, He removes their sorrows (15)
He reduces their problems with a kind eye (16)

When He walks, He crosses His scarf on His left shoulder (17)
And He keeps a handkerchief in His right hand (18)
Sometimes He keeps His left hand on His waist (19)
The beloved of Premãnand does this whilst walking (20)

SRS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE EAST LONDON

PAD 7

Mahãrãj does new leelãs daily (1)
Listening and singing the hari-bhaktos become very happy (2)
Mahãrãj's walk is naturally fast (3)
He calls santo and hari-bhaktos with great affection (4)

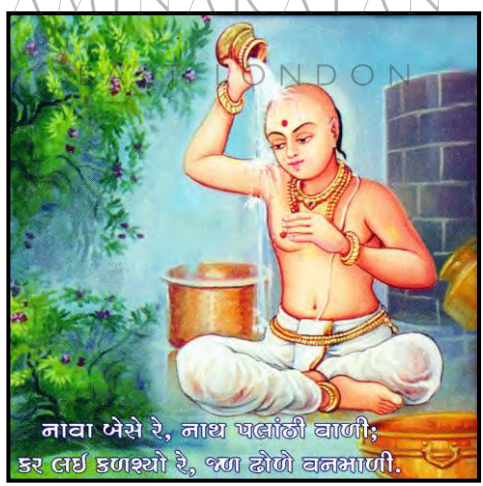
So they can help Him climb on His horse (5)
Sometimes He calls Santo to serve food (6)
Keeping His scarf on His left shoulder (7)
He ties the scarf tightly around His waist (8)

Ghanshyam serves ladus and jelabis (9)
And serves other items, calling the hari-bhaktos names (10)
Mahãrãj repeatedly walks around the rows of people who are eating (11)
So that He can serve santo and hari-bhaktos (12)

He serves food with devotion (13)
He laughs and gives ladus in the mouths of hari-bhaktos (14)
In the last part of the night when there are four ghadis lefts (96 minutes)
Mahãrãj wakes up and goes to brush His teeth (16)

When having a bath, He sits with His legs crossed (17)
He uses a kalashyo (metallic jug) to put water over Himself (18)
He then wipes His body with a clean cloth (19)
Premãnand says that all hari-bhaktos watch these actions (20)

SKS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE LONDON



PAD 8

Mahãrãj looks very attractive after having a bath (1)
He rinses the wet cloth between His thighs, after His bath (2)
And he wipes His legs and thighs (3)
He wears a dry cloth stretching it tightly (4)

Mahãrãj wears a silk bordered shawl (5)
He comes to take food wearing His wooden sandals (6)
He wears a shawl on His head when he sits to eat (7)
He keeps His ears uncovered like me (Premãnand Swãmi) (8)

He crosses His legs while eating, keeping His left leg inwards (9)
And He puts His left hand on His left leg (10)
And He keeps His right leg upright (11)
He keeps His right hand on His leg (12)

The God of the demigods, eats elegantly (13)
Every now and again, He takes water while eating His meal (14)
While he is eating, sometimes when the food is tasty (15)
He gives it to the hari-bhaktos sitting near Him (16)

Sometimes He gives the food to His hari-bhaktos first, then eats Himself (17)
Hari-bhaktos enjoy watching Mahãrãj eat (18)
Once He has finished eating, He moves His hand over His stomach (19)
And then Premãnand's Bhagvãn lets out a belch (20)

SKS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE EAST LONDON

PAD 9

Mahãrãj rinses His mouth (1)
And then He cleans His teeth with a silver toothpick (2)
Then He chews mouth-freshener, and sits by a cushion (3)
Hari-bhaktos pay their respect with great love (4)

He ties a cloth around His head, passing it close to His eyebrows (5)
And then he puts a tassel (6)
When the rainy season comes (7)
He praises the clean water of Ghela Nadi (8)

With Him, He takes santo and hari-bhaktos (9)
And they go to take a bath in Ghelã Nadi (10)
And they play and throw water on each other for a long time (11)
They clap and sing kirtans, whilst in the water (12)

Mahãrãj comes out of the water and puts on dry clothes (13)
And goes back home riding His horse (14)
Hari-bhaktos walk behind singing kirtans (15)
Hari-bhaktos are filled with joy when they see Mahãrãj (16)

This makes the people of Gadhpur very happy (17)
They feel fulfilled when they see Mahãrãj (18)
When he arrives, Mahãrãj takes a seat in the hall (19)
The Swãmi (Mahãrãj) of Premãnand sits with a cushion (20)

SHREE SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE

PAD 10

To give His hari-bhaktos heaven (1)
Purshottam Mahãrãj has come to earth Himself (2)
He looks very charming when He sits in a sabhã (3)
Just like the full moon amongst the beautiful stars (4)

His talks delight hari-bhaktos, and He showers bliss upon them (5)
He goes to bed at night after eating His meal (6)
He moves two finger across His forhead, where His tilak is (7)
He keeps them straight and moves them in the middle of His forehead (8)

Whilst sleeping, He has a mãlã in His hand (9)
He turns His mãlã everyday with His right hand (10)
Without making a mistake, this is His regular behavior (11)
This is the reliability of Mahãrãj's nature (12)

Mahãrãj sleeps during the night (13)
All of a sudden someone touches Him (14)
That startles Him, and causes Him to wake up (15)
"Who is it?" He asks the person (16)

Like this, there are many stories of Mahãrãj (17)
I have sung this from my knowledge (18)
Whoever learns, sings, and listens to this (19)
Will please the Swãmi (Mahãrãj) of Premãnand very much (20)

Swãminãrãyan Mahã-Mantra

"Swãminãrãyan" is a mahã-mantra given by Sahajãnand Swãmi in Faneni. This name of Bhagvãn holds power greater than any other name.

Swaminãrãyan simply translates as "master of the whole world". He is the creator and destroyer of everything. Everything happens because it is the wish of Bhagvãn. He resides in the heart of everyone – humans, animals, and plants.

The greatness of the "Swãminãrãyan" mahã-mantra is described in "Je Swãminãrãyan Nam Leshe" from Shree Hari-Lilãmrut."

- The "Swãminãrãyan" name burns the sins of those who speak it
- Bhagvãn's names are in many scriptures, but this is considered the greatest
- Saying "Swãminãrãyan" once, is like saying other names thousands of times
- No-one can describe the rewards we receive from saying "Swãminãrãyan"
- The mantra is so great, that all your desires are fulfilled by it
- It brings happiness and destroys sorrows, and in the end it gives Akshardhãm
- If it is heard at the end of life, even a sinner can attain Moksh
- Evil spirits run from the mantra
- Wisdom awakens after hearing "Swãminãrãyan"
- The Yamduts (messengers of death) fear those who say "Swãminãrãyan"
- As water washes the body, "Swãminãrãyan" cleanses the soul

SKS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE

We should say "Swãminãrãyan" all the time with love, with every step you take, whether you have a cleansed body or not.

Sing "Swãminãrãyan" dhun.
Say "Jay Swãminãrãyan" when you meet and greet a satsangi.

Jan-Mangal Stotra

At the time of Swaminarayan Bhagvãn, there was a sant called Shatanand Swami. He wrote a scripture called Satsangi Jeevan, which was better than any other scripture written at that time. Satsangi Jeevan translates as "the life of a satsangi".

Satsangi Jeevan includes the leela-charitas of Swaminarayan Bhagvãn. However, the scripture is very long. So Shatanand Swami wrote the "Sarva-Mangal Stotra", which contains 1008 names that describe Bhagvãn's best leela-charitras. Whoever recites the Sarva-Mangal Stotra, will receive the same rewards as reading Satsangi Jeevan.

However, the Sarva-Mangal Stotra was still very long. Then after some time, Shatanand Swami simplified the Sarva-Mangal Stotra by choosing the best leela-charitras from there. He wrote these in the Jan-Mangal Stotra or Jan-Mangal Namavali. This contains 108 names that describe the leela-charitras and virtues of Bhagvãn. Whoever recites the Jan-Mangal Stotra, will receive the same rewards as reading Satsangi Jeevan.

A promise was given by Shatanand Swami – whoever recites the Jan-Mangal Stotra ten times a day, will receive whatever their heart desires.

SKS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE

There are many rewards in reciting Janmangal Stotra:

- protects satsangis from fear and obstacles
- brings bliss to you and your family
- burns away your sins, and purifies you
- frightens away evil spirits, demons, and ghosts
- brings you happiness and good fortune

- you easily attain the four rewards of wordly life
    - Dharma– the benefit of performing religious duties
    - Arth – the gaining of wealth
    - Kãm – the fulfilment of wishes and desires
    - Moksh – freedom from the cycle of birth and death

Fagvã

In Sãrangpur, Mahãrãj invited the male satsangis and santo to play Holi with Him. When the santo and satsangis had gathered, they saw Mahãrãj having a meal. They waited very patiently outside the house, waiting for the moment when Shreeji Mahãrãj went to wash His hands and come out of the house.

The moment Shreeji Mahãrãj stepped outside the house, the satsangis and santo all gathered around and smothered him in coloured powders. Shreeji Mahãrãj enjoyed the moment so much that He blessed them with whatever they wished for (Fagvã).

Nishkulãnand Swãmi noted everything the santo and satsangis asked for in the shãstra Bhakt Chintamani, in Prakran 64.

Bhoot Pishãch Nikat Nahi Ãvey, Mahãbir Jab Nãm Sunãvey.
When the ghosts, demons and evil spirits hear Hanumanji's name, they keep away from his devotees.

Nãsey Rog Hare Sab Peerã, Japat Nirantar Hanumant Beerã.
All sorrows disappears when you recite Hanumanji's name.

Sankat Te Hanumãn Chhudãve, Man Karma Bachan Dhyãn Jo Lãve.
Those who remember Hanumanji in thought, word and deed, are well guarded against bad luck in life.

Sab Par Rãm Tapasvi Rãjã, Tin Ke Kãj Sakal Tum Sãjã.
You are caretaker of even Lord Rãm, who is the supreme Lord and the king of all those devoted to penance.

Aur Mano-Rath Jo Koi Lãve, Soi Amit Jeevan Fal Pãve.
You fulfill the desires of all those who come to you.
You give the eternal nectar, the highest fruit of life.

Chãro Yug Partãp Tum-Hãrã, Hey Par-Sidh Jagat Uji-Yãrã.
Your magnificent glory is acclaimed far and wide all through the four ages.
Your fame is noted all over the universe.

SKS SWAMINARAYAN TEMPLE EAST LONDON

Sãdhu Sant Ke Tum Rakh-Vãre, Asur Nikandan Rãm Dulãre.
You are the saviour and the guardian angel of santo and sages.
You destroy all the demons, and you are dearest to Shree Rãm.

Ashta Sidhi Nau Nidhi Ke Dãtã, As Bar Din Jãnaki Mãtã.
Janki Mãtã bless Hanumanji, and gave him the control to grant anyone with the power of eight sidhis and nine nidhis.

Rãm Rasãyan Tum-Hãre Pãsã, Sadã Raho Raghu-Pati Ke Dãsã.
You hold the essence of devotion to Rãm, and you always remain his servent.

Tum-Hãre Bhajan Rãm Ko Pãvey, Janam Janam Ke Dukh Bisrãvey.
Through devotion to you, one can become a devotee of Rãm, and be freed from suffering of life and death.

Ant-Kãl Raghu-Bar Pur Jãi, Jahã Janma Hari-Bhakt Kahãi.
And at the moment of death, one goes to Rãm's abode
and is born as his devotee.

Aur Dev-Tã Chit Na Dharai, Hanumant Sei Sarva Sukh Karai.
You don't need to hold any other Dev in you mind.
Hanumanji alone will give you all the happiness.

Sankat Kate Mite Sab Peerã, Jo Sumirey Hanumat Bal-Beerã.
You end the suffering and remove pain from those who remember you.

Jay Jay Jay Hanumãn Gosãi, Krupã Karu Guru-Dev Ki Nãi.
Victory to Hanumanji! I seek your honour to bless me in like my supreme 'teacher'.

Jo Sat Bãr Pãth Kar Koi, Chhut-Hi Bandi Mahã Sukh Hoi.
Whoever recites the Hanuman Chalisa one hundred times a day, for one hundred days, will be free from the cycle of life and death. They will receive eternal bliss.

Jo Yah Padhe Hanumãn Chãlisã, Hoy Siddhi Sãkhi Gau-Reesã.
Those who recite the Hanuman Chalisa regularly will be blessed.

Tulsi-Dãs Sadã Hari Cherã, Kije Nãth Ruday Mahi Derã.
Tulsi, who is a servant of God, prays "Oh my Lord ! You shine within my heart".

Pavan Tanay Sankat Haran, Mangal Murti Roop.
Rãm Lakhan Sitã Sahit, Ruday Bas-Hu Sur Bhup.
O son of the wind, you are the destroyer of suffering, and full of blessings.
O king of gods, live in my heart with Shree Rãm, Lakshman and Sitãji.

His hair is thick, long, and brown, and His forehead glistens in the light. Whilst walking, he keeps His brown eyes in line with His beak-like nose. When he laughs, His face radiates like the moon in the sky.

His body has faded into skin and bones, due to extreme tap. That is what this brahm-chãri is like. His mind is always focused on tap. The summer, monsoon, and winter seasons, he sits where we do not sit. In the summer, he sits under the hot sun. Throughout monsoon, he sits in the rain. During the the winter, he endures the cold.

All the different marks on His thin body are exposed, and all His veins are visible. Having battled all His inner-demons, no wishes or desires remain. He is radiant like the Devs.

With him, he carries a deer-skin cloth, a stick, a mãlã, a small bundle of scriptures, a black shãligrãm stone, a water pot, a dish for meals, a piece of cloth to filter water, and a cotton string to take water out of the well. He wears a kanthi and loin-cloth, and he has not a single penny on him. He looks so amazing, that He is beyond words.
